

CHARDONNAY 2009

Cousiño Macul was one of the first Chilean wineries to produce Chardonnay. Chardonnay, has a fresh and fruity style with no wood.

TASTING NOTES

This Chardonnay has a clear golden color with bright notes. The bouquet reveals a youthful Chardonnay with floral notes, very delicate and elegant. Fruity aromas, such as pineapple and apple can be felt. On the palate it is firm-bodied, with good alcohol content and balanced acidity. It is full, well-rounded and has a long finish.

HARMONIES

In general, this Chardonnay goes well with a wide range of seafood such as oysters, pink clams in parmesan sauce, Mariscal (Chilean seafood soup), sushi and sashimi, fried white fish such as sole, Chilean sea bass and conger eel.
